

The Oaks at Boca Raton developing three new models

The Oaks at Boca Raton, which recently sold all of its 14 inventory homes during its Inventory Close-out Event, has announced that new models are under construction: the Verona and the Balmonte Grande III luxury estate homes.

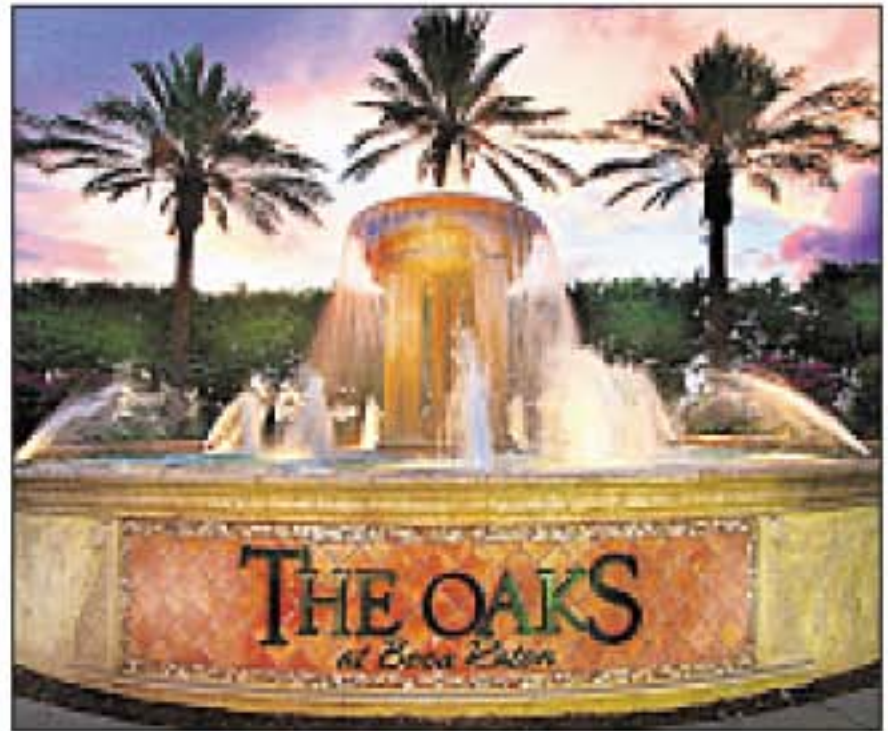

In the planning stage is a new Savona model.

A limited number of decorated models are available to buyers.

More than 300 families already enjoy The Oaks at Boca Raton's resort lifestyle, which centers around The Club at The Oaks. The Santa Barbara-style clubhouse features a full-service spa and fitness center as well as a resort-size, tropically landscaped and heated pool with cabanas and a café.

The Tennis Center at The Club offers 12 courts, including a stadium court, a red-clay court and a hard court, plus a pro shop and a full schedule of tennis events.
