

Open House Weekend Lets Buyers Tour 10 Multi-Million Dollar Designer Homes at The Oaks at Boca Raton

BOCA RATON, Fla. – The Oaks at Boca Raton, the last great estate home community with a Boca Raton Address, hosted its largest open house last weekend, where buyers toured 10 spectacular multi-million dollar homes, with new promotion prices starting at just over $1 million.

The furnished models and exclusive custom homes showcased such luxury features as inviting pools, marble flooring, sweeping staircases, a host of luxury upgrades and accessories and custom designer furnishings throughout, all for immediate occupancy.

The open house weekend on Feb 27th & 28th attracted many enthusiastic buyers, who were offered a savings of $1 million on the luxurious furnished models available for sale at The Oaks. In case you missed the event, The Oaks is holding an additional Open House weekend on March 13th & 14th from noon to 5pm both days.

The unique Biella, a 7,712 total square foot home included in the Open House, features signature round turret architecture, offering 6-bedrooms and 7-full and 2-half baths, with a stunning Master Suite on the ground level. The home's circular staircase leads upward to an open multi-purpose loft area with coffered ceiling and four large bedrooms, each with its own in-suite bath. Found on the ground level is the formal living room and dining room plus an inviting den/study. The gourmet kitchen opens into a spacious family room and breakfast area, overlooking the covered patio with its summer kitchen and the tropical pool area.

An outstanding interior design firm has professionally created each model, and the attractive architectural details, upgrades and accessories caught the eyes of many.

“These builder model homes accompanied by the new promotional pricing and savings is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for this community,” said Lorna Swartz, Director of Sales for The Oaks at Boca Raton. “Buyers should take advantage of the builder closeout while these phenomenally priced homes are still available for quick occupancy.”

All the designer models feature up to six bedrooms with spacious floorplans and some highlight gorgeous lofts and custom built offices. Each home is either situated on prime, lakefront homesites or surrounded by secluded, lush landscaping.

With formal living rooms, separate formal dining rooms, spacious family rooms with breakfast areas, media rooms, outstanding covered patios and tropical pool areas, these homes boast large, gourmet kitchens that feature granite-topped center islands, natural gas utilities and state-of-the-art appliances.

Each home offers a unique wealth of outstanding features, including elegant Saturnia marble flooring that sets the stage for the homes' spacious floorplans and pools. Highlights such as stunning master suites with walk-in closets, marble master baths with his-and-hers sinks, whirlpool tubs and spacious walk-in showers, are sure to please every taste.

The Oaks at Boca Raton, a 282-acre, resort-style Boca Raton community, is the imaginative creation of two of South Florida's premier builder/developer firms: Kenco Communities and Albanese-Popkin Development Group. They are joined in this superb community by the outstanding building firm of Charlse-Watt Communities.

The Oaks' equity-free club lifestyle centers on The Club at The Oaks, with its beautiful Santa Barbara-style clubhouse and exciting program of social events. Residents enjoy a full-service Spa and Fitness Center and a resort-size, tropically landscaped heated pool surrounded by chic cabanas and a casual poolside café and full-size basketball court. The popular Tennis Center at The Club provides 12 courts, including a stadium court, a red-clay court and a hard court, plus a well-equipped pro shop and a full schedule of tennis events coordinated by professional staff.

To visit The Oaks, take I-95 to Yamato Road west exit. Head west to Lyons Road, then turn right on Lyons Road to Clint Moore Road. At Clint Moore Road, head left to the Grand Entry on the right. For more information, contact The Oaks Sales Office at (561) 482-4113 or visit www.theoaksatbocaraton.com.

-###-